

Devastation. 7,7,8,8.D.

Carrie Dashow, 2005

Jesse Pearlman Karlsberg, 2005

1. Sluicing mud and crafting land, Out at night with dirty hand, A fort it ri-ses from the roots And sto - ic sits a - waiting troops.

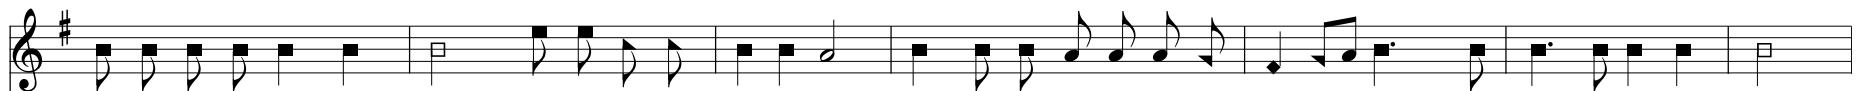

2. Late at night they tore it down, Fort has fell grew tall and new, A gen - tle watch-er at the sea, Eye op - tic wide be seen to see.

Peo-ple gra-vi-tate to stone, Lighthouse looker shy be shown, True speaker of the tongue of mounds, This air transmits now open sound.

Nervous signal ho - ver 'bove, Place you never thought could love, Col-lec-tive in-for-ma-tion is, Transcend com-mun - i - ca-tion does.

Devastation. concluded.

A musical score consisting of six staves of music in G major, common time. The lyrics are written below each staff, corresponding to the musical phrases. The score includes vocal parts and a bass line. The lyrics describe a scene of destruction and loss, with repeated lines of "Vis - ta arises from the earth," and "Look toward west with in-so-lence, Island adolescence flees," followed by sections of "Tolerance gone, with in-no-cence." The score concludes with a final section of "with in-no-cence. in-no-cence."
